Product Classification Matrix

product_classification@gendigital.com

Gen products, services, and technologies are subject to import, export, and other trade regulations under the laws of the United States and other national governments. You are responsible for complying with any local laws in your jurisdiction that may impact your right to import, export, or use Gen products, services, software, or technologies. Each product has an Export Control Classification Number (ECCN) and license information, and corresponds to a Harmonized Tariff Schedule number. The table below lists Gen products with version numbers, ECCNs, license information, and the U.S. Schedule B number.

Gen makes the following data available for information purposes only.
